

CALCUTTA CLUB USA

Membership Terms & Conditions

(Last Revised Sep 10, 2014)

In the following sections, any reference to the “Club” implies our organization, Calcutta Club USA. Additionally, any reference to an individual in either gender term (e.g. him or her) shall encompass the other gender as well.

Please note that this agreement is a living document, and can be updated by Club committee at any time as needed. Members are encouraged to review the document periodically, or request clarification from the Club committee in case there are questions.

1. HOURS OF OPERATION: The Club will generally meet on a specific Sunday of every month from 3-00 pm to 7-00 pm, during which time members may attend the Club at its standard location, unless otherwise intimated by the Club committee. Attendance to the Club premises beyond those hours are not permitted, unless explicitly communicated to the members ahead of time.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT: Every Member shall conduct himself in a manner befitting the status and dignity of the Club. Members shall also be held responsible for the behavior of their family members and guests brought into the Club. In particular, the following events shall be construed as MISCONDUCT, which may lead to action against the member, including termination of membership. The decision of the Club committee will be final in such matters.
